Senior Class History

In September, 1953, 145 little freshmen entered N. H. H. S. We soon became adjusted with the help of our sponsors, Mr. Scott Armstrong, Mrs. Barter, Mrs. Graebner, and Mr. Marshall. At that time the long-hoped-for graduation seemed quite far away, but now we realize how short our time spent here has been.

As we look back, we think of all the good times and honors we've had. Our class has had its full share of captains, editors, and officers of various organizations. Our ball games, parties, and dances have given us many cherished memories.

Dan Pearson, who has been our class president all four of our high school years, has done a wonderful job in leading and serving our class.

There have been changes in the list of sponsors. In our sophomore year our destinies were guided by Mr. Scott Armstrong, Mrs. Graebner, Mr. Marshall, and Mr. Wolfe. For the last two years, our sponsors have been Mr. Clark, Mrs. Graebner, Mr. Marshall, and Mr. Wolfe.

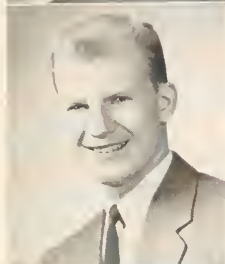

Now with sad hearts, 124 of us bid "farewell" to our Alma Mater which holds memories of those days which can never be replaced or relived.

Junior Snaps

A dense collage of black and white photographs from the mid-20th century. The images are of various sizes and are arranged in an overlapping, non-linear fashion. The subjects are primarily young people, likely students, captured in a variety of settings and activities. Some photos show individuals in costumes or uniforms, while others depict candid moments of social interaction. The overall aesthetic is that of a personal photo album or a yearbook supplement. Notable images include a group of people in heart-shaped cutouts, a person in a hat and sunglasses, and several candid shots of groups of friends. The collage is a visual representation of a specific time and place, likely a school year or a social event.
